About Us

BATA was established as a farmers' cooperative in 1894 at Brandsby, North Yorkshire, 10 miles north of York. Today we are still an agricultural supply cooperative with 4,000 share members. We offer a wide range of products, including bulk and bagged animal feeds, pet foods, heating oil, LPG, timber, fencing, horse rugs, seeds or fertiliser, to name just a few.

About the Role

LGV driver primarily involved with Fuel Oil and LPG operations – predominantly delivering fuel products from BATA's own storage facility or directly from the refinery to Agricultural, commercial and domestic customers.

The ideal candidate will be able to provide excellent customer service and be able to work as part of a team and independently. ADR (class 2 gases) and HGV Class 2 or 3 is advantageous, but other candidates will be considered.

The role requires you to be available to drive any type of vehicle which you are trained and qualified as required by BATA.

Key Responsibilities

- Carrying out daily vehicle checks and reporting defects.
- Delivering and connecting LPG cylinders to commercial and domestic customers.
- Completing all necessary paperwork.
- Loading and unloading of cylinders on vehicles. Heavy manual handling required.
- Handing out cards to potential customers.
- General maintenance during quiet periods.

Benefits

- Free onsite parking
- Employee discount
- Cycle to work scheme
- Company sick pay
- Company pension
- Company events
- Performance related annual bonus

If you think you have the skills and experience we are looking for, we would love to hear from you!
